

This is a Call to all music fans as Foo Fighters and Kaiser Chiefs are the first to confirm for T on the Fringe 2007!

In a sneak preview of what promises to be another stellar T on the Fringe line-up, DF Concerts and founding partners Tennent's Lager are delighted to announce some of the biggest capacity shows in the history of the Edinburgh Fringe.

Tuesday 21st August sees the Grammy award winning rock legends Foo Fighters at Edinburgh's Meadowbank Stadium. While August 24th sees current album chart toppers Kaiser Chiefs take over the podium at Meadowbank with their high octane sing along anthems which have captivated music lovers since their debut arrived back in 2005. Both gigs will see increased capacity at Meadowbank stadium as it opens its gates to 25,000 music fans and, still to be announced is the support of some very special guests for these incredible shows which will secure their place as two of the highlights of the summer's musical calendar.

Since its inception in 2000, T on the Fringe has played host to some of the most commercially successful artists as well as the best in alternative and emergent talent. Today's announcement is just a glimpse of what is to come, with many more fantastic additions to be made over the coming months. Music fans should go to www.tonthefringe.com and register to be the first to hear about news on T on the Fringe 2007.

Dave Corbet of promoters DF Concerts said; 'Over the past 7 years we've had some fantastic shows at T on the Fringe and we're really pleased to announce today that we'll be increasing the capacity of Meadowbank for our gigs in 2007 in what will become the biggest shows in the history of the Edinburgh Fringe. We've got some more really exciting news for 2007 still to come for what we can assure you will be the best T on the Fringe yet.'

George Kyle, Head of Sponsorship at Tennent's Lager added that;

'Everyone at Tennent's Lager is very excited about this weekend's T on the Fringe announcements. To be able to announce such internationally renowned artists really solidifies the events profile as one of Scotland's most exciting music festivals and we are proud to have it in Tennent's eclectic music programme.'

Tickets go on sale at 9.30am on Wednesday 21st March and are priced at £37.50 for Foo Fighters and £28.50 for Kaiser Chiefs. Tel: 0870 169 0100. Tickets are also available from Tickets Scotland, Ticketmaster Ticket Centres, www.gigsinscotland.com and www.tonthefringe.com

Notes to editors:

2006 saw the most successful T on the Fringe in its seven years with 100,000 tickets sold for almost 60 gigs featuring 134 artists. Snow Patrol rocked the 22,000 Meadowbank crowd as they played what was their biggest headline gig, and at the same time breaking a record already held by T on the Fringe for the biggest show at the Edinburgh Fringe.

Since the inaugural T on the Fringe back in 2000, DF Concerts and Tennent's Lager have worked together to bring an astounding mix of new and established, international and home-grown talent in an unparalleled line-up that truly enhances the eclectic nature of Edinburgh in August. Over the years the event has played host to the likes of Pixies, Muse, Morrissey, Nancy Sinatra, Franz Ferdinand and Arcade Fire.
